Czech Heroines:

Prominent Czech Women Past and Present

Exhibit Rental Information

Czech Heroines is an illustrated mosaic of the stories of prominent Czech women - rulers, politicians, artists, scientists, and athletes – who left an important mark on history and the present day in the Czech lands and internationally. Included are former Secretary of State Madeleine Albright and tennis champion Martina Navratilova. This exhibit was created by The Czech Centres and the Faculty of Design and Art at the University of West Bohemia.

Exhibit Contains:

- 15 flexible panels measuring 28 inches wide by 40 inches long for a total of 33 linear feet of display space. Each panel tells the story of a different Czech woman with an artist's depiction of her as the backdrop. The women included are Madeleine Albright, Martina Sáblíkova, Ema Destinnová, Milena Jesenská, Věra Čáslavská, Marie Schmolková, Eliška Junková, Toyen, Martina Navrátilová, Božena Němcová, Meda Mládková, Milada Horáková, and Alice Masaryková. The exhibit was created by The Czech Centres and the Faculty of Design and Art at the University of West Bohemia.
- Panels rolled into a box measuring 12" x 12" x 40" and weighing approximately 15 lbs.

Time:
Duration of exhibit is negotiable.

Procedures for Booking:
The borrower must pay for shipping costs to and from the venue. The NCSML Traveling Exhibit Coordinator will ship via FedEx and send return shipping labels via email once the exact return date has been determined. The Coordinator will also arrange the package pick-up. The NCSML Finance Director will bill the borrower after the exhibit's return to the NCSML.

Setting up the Exhibit:
The panels can be arranged in any order and will accommodate almost any space. Each panel has circular grommets for hanging by hooks, nails, or cables. Command strips may also be applied to their backs, but this method is unlikely to hold for as long.

The NCSML traveling exhibition program is generously supported by American Czech Association, Los Angeles and American Sokol Los Angeles.
